NOTICES TO MARINERS.

1. Notices to Mariners, for the correction of Admiralty charts, Sailing Directions, Light Lists, and other hydrographic publications, are issued by the Admiralty for the use of both the Royal Navy and the Mercantile Marine.

2. For foreign-going vessels the following Notices to Mariners are issued :—

(a) Daily Notices. Issued only to disseminate information of an urgent nature or of major importance.

(b) Weekly (complete) edition of Notices. This contains all the information which has become available during the previous week and includes any Daily Notices issued during that week.

(c) A quarterly edition containing, in a collated form, the hydrographic information published in the weekly (complete) editions during the previous quarter.

3. For home-trade and fishing vessels the following Notices to Mariners are issued :—

(a) Daily Notices. Issued only to disseminate information of an urgent nature or of major importance.

(b) Weekly (home-trade) edition of Notices. This contains information relating only to the area traversed by home-trade and fishing vessels, which has become available during the previous week, and includes any Daily Notices issued during that week. Note.—This edition is printed on green tinted paper.

4. In addition, the Ministry of Shipping publishes and distributes on the 1st January of each year, an Annual Book of Notices for the information of Masters of foreign-going, home-trade and fishing vessels. This book contains information of a general nature, e.g., Notices regarding navigational warnings, meteorological services, distress procedure, life-saving, various special signals, etc.

5. How to obtain the above Notices :—

(a) Masters of foreign-going vessels may obtain, gratis, the daily Notices to Mariners, the weekly (complete) and quarterly editions of Notices to Mariners and the Annual Book, at Mercantile Marine Offices in Great Britain and Northern Ireland. The weekly (complete) and quarterly editions and the Annual Book may be inspected and in many cases copies obtained at all important shipping offices in the Dominions, India and the Colonies, and at all important British Consulates.

(b) Masters of home-trade and fishing vessels may obtain, gratis, copies of the daily Notices to Mariners, the weekly (home-trade) editions of Notices to Mariners, and the Annual Book at Custom Houses in Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

NAVIGATIONAL WARNINGS.—In addition to the above, Navigational Warnings of an urgent nature are broadcast by W/T and R/T from certain coast wireless stations in Great Britain and Ireland as well as by the British Broadcasting Corporation. A list of the Wireless Stations from which, and the times at which, the Warnings are broadcast is published in the Board of Trade Annual Book of Notices.

Masters are recommended to arrange wherever possible for the W/T operator or an officer to listen in at the scheduled time prior to sailing for any warnings affecting their routes.

NOTICES TO SHIP WIRELESS STATIONS.—Notices to Ship Wireless Stations are issued to Masters, who are responsible for the supply of these notices to the ship's wireless station. These notices are issued when required, not necessarily at regular intervals. They can be obtained free of charge from any Mercantile Marine Office or Custom House, where they are retained for six months, after which application for missing or back numbers should be made to The Telecommunications Department (Wireless Telegraphy Section), Headquarters Building, General Post Office, London, E.C.1

A complete file of current Notices should be kept in the Wireless Office, and Masters should procure copies of any missing numbers.
